I have attached a certified copy of the legal documentation proving my name change (ex. marriage certificate or divorce decree) and I have obtained a notary stamp in the Signature section of the form

3 Signature & Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding as a result of either being exempt from backup withholding, not being notified by the Internal Revenue service (IRS) of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding*, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien), and
4. The FATCA code entered on this form (if any) indicating that the payee is exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Note: Cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

Please sign below with your new and former name.

4 Notary Certification

Your signatures must be guaranteed by an officer of a bank, savings association, credit union, a member firm of a domestic stock exchange, or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, that is an eligible guarantor institution. A notary public from a financial institution is able to provide an acceptable certification. The notary public's business card or a signed letter from the notary public on the financial institution's letterhead must accompany the form.
